Coleman Notes

Alex. McLean went to Lethbridge on Monday evening. He returned to town on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKibbin were in Frank on Sunday.

The Board of Trade met on Wednesday night, and disposed of some important business.

The Coleman tennis players went to Frank on Saturday and got badly soaked both by the Frank players and the elements above.

It is rumored that the Coleman Miner will shortly be resurrected. The Miner has for some time been like the sun in eclipse. We long to feel its rays again.

Much interest was shown at the re-organization meeting of the Liberal association here on Monday evening. In spite of bad weather, a large crowd was present and the following were elected: Alex. Cameron president, Charles Quimette, secretary, treasurer. The executive committee to be elected at a meeting to be held on Monday next.

Robert Holmes, W. L. Quimette, Alex. Cameron, R. G. Goodwin and J. A. Prie were elected delegates to attend the convention at Macleod on Friday.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the meeting: "We, the Liberals of Coleman take this opportunity of expressing our approval of the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and we heartily endorse the reciprocity agreement as arranged by that government with the government of the United States."

A GREAT SLAUGHTER

Seven Large Milch Cows Killed by Train, Near Blairmore, on Thursday Night.

ALL BELONGED TO LANK BROS.

A Large Crowd of Beef Eaters Visited the Scene and Mourned over the Wholesale Waste

Lank Brothers, of the Crystal Dairy sustained a heavy loss on Thursday evening by killing seven large milch cows killed and mangled on the railroad track by the C.P.R. train.

Lank Brothers had finished milking their cows for the evening and had let sixty-five of them out on the grazing ground a little distance west-north west of the telephone office. About 8.40 a west-bound freight struck one of the cows which had wandered south from their grazing ground to the railway track. The other cows soon caught scent of the blood and hurried immediately to the scene of the slaughter.

The east-bound passenger train, which was due to arrive at Blairmore about 9 p.m., and which left Coleman on time, killed, or severely wounded six other cows and bruised several more before the train, which had just before rounded a curve, could be brought to a standstill.

About two hundred people were soon on the scene, and mince-meat, and blood—some what thicker than that used by Socialists when signing their names to the membership roll—were very much in evidence. Besides the seven cows which were killed outright by the trains or had to be shot, there were several others badly bruised, and the owners claim that the damage done to their dairy stock amounts to over one thousand dollars.

Blairmore Liberals hold Grand Meeting

The Blairmore Liberal association in Budd's hall, on Monday evening last, was a grand success. There were 69 present when the meeting commenced, 82 of which signed the roll and became members of the association. W. A. Beebe was elected secretary of the association. The next business was that of electing delegates to attend the convention to be held at Macleod on Friday. The delegates chosen were, J. A. McDonald, M. Ross and Archie McLeod.

Scenery Installed

The scenery for the new and commodious opera house at Blairmore, arrived on Friday last and has since been put in position. The scenery was made by the Twin City Scenic Co. of Minneapolis and is some of the best that has ever been brought West. The whole thing reflects much credit on the directors of that new and splendid building as well as on the scenic company. Six beautiful hand-painted curtains, including one made entirely of asbestos, and their numerous "flats" have been installed and are the objects of considerable favorable comment.

MINERS BACK TO WORK AT CORBIN

At a vote of the coal miners taken at Corbin on Saturday last, a large majority of the miners voted in favor of accepting Dr. Gordon's report. On Monday a large number of the miners returned to work at that camp and at present they are mining several hundred tons of coal a day at that place. The union officials made many attempts to defeat Gordon's report and several votes were taken all of which resulted strongly in favor of accepting the report of the majority of the conciliation board.

Considerable unrest prevails in all the camps throughout this district and most of the miners are getting disgusted with the way the union officials are running things. The miners want to return to work and say they will no longer be bullied by the Socialists who are trying to run the union.

Blairmore Summer School Now Open

On Wednesday, the Summer School at Blairmore, under the auspices of the Alberta Sunday School Association, was opened on the beautiful camping ground granted through the courtesy of the West Canadian Collieries. The committee in charge expect a large attendance and arrangements are being made to meet all trains and transfer the students to the camp.

The camping equipment is most complete in every way and all persons attending are being made as comfortable. There is a large number of tents, some small for sleeping apartments, others larger for meetings, dining room, etc. Comfortable spring cots with plenty of clean bedding are available and meals are being served on the grounds at very reasonable prices.

The staff of lecturers is composed of a large number of specialists and experts in the line of Summer School work. Prof. L. L. Henry, who is so well known to many Alberta people from having attended district conventions and the provincial convention last year, is in charge of the music, which is a special feature in the morning and evening meetings. Rev. H. Woodworth, an able and enthusiastic missionary just returned from Japan is conducting mission study classes and brings a picture of conditions in the East which many have never imagined existed. Miss Helen Falk, of Winnipeg Normal School, the children's friend and often called the "Elementary Queen" is giving lectures on child study and conducts a "Story Hour" each evening at twilight. Prof. Dyde, late of Queen's University, recently appointed principal of the new Presbyterian College to be established in Alberta, is in charge of the Bible study classes each morning. The general secretary, H. F. Kenny, has messages from the great international convention held in San Francisco in June. Other local men, strong for in Sunday school and church work are present, and it is expected this school will result in a tremendous uplift to the work of all churches in Southern Alberta.

A CROWDED COURT ROOM

Hears Assault Case Instituted by the Editor of This Paper Against Robert Evans.

EVANS FINED $5 AND COSTS

Or One Month Behind the Bars—A Friend Pays Fine and Saves Evans From Going to Jail

The police barracks at Blairmore was literally packed on Friday morning last when a case of assault, instigated by J. D. S. Barrett against Robert (better known as Bob) Evans came up for hearing before Justice Belcher. The charge was the result of a disgraceful scene committed by Mr. Evans on Thursday last.

When Mr. Barrett, the plaintiff, was leaving the Blairmore hotel, after having taken lunch, and was walking towards his office, Mr. Evans, without giving any warning, whatever, rushed madly up behind the plaintiff and made a vicious stroke at the young newspaper man. The editor of this old rag of freedom moved quickly to one side and Mr. Evans' big fist just grazed the back part of Mr. Barrett's left shoulder. The big miner made another wild dash towards the editor but the latter eluded Mr. Evans' second attempt to do bodily injury to the plaintiff. Whereupon Mr. Barrett imparted the sad and unpleasant intelligence to his assailant that he would have him arrested.

At 4 o'clock that same afternoon, Robert Evans appeared in court to answer to the charge preferred against him by J. D. S. Barrett. Mr. Evans asked to have court adjourned until the following morning; which request was granted.

At 10 a.m. the court room was crowded with interested spectators. It was a wet and dreary morning outside and inside there was a little of the same atmosphere, there being an array of legal lights to remove the gloom. Both Mr. Evans and Mr. Barrett acted as their own lawyers.

J. T. Pearson was the first witness called by the plaintiff. His evidence was along the lines given above. R. G. Foot and C. Delle were also called by the plaintiff and they corroborated much of the evidence given by the first witness.

Robert Evans, the defendant, told his story. He said that he did not strike the plaintiff, but he had intended to do so. He failed to carry out his purpose because of the plaintiff's dexterity, and he was sorry that he failed.

was reminded by the court time and again that he was contradicting some of his former statements. F. W. Hogg was the second and last witness. He did not see the whole of the fray and therefore could not give a detailed account.

Justice Belcher then asked Mr. Evans to stand up. The defendant was told that such a scene was contrary to law and should not have occurred. The judge was surprised to find a man of Mr. Evans' age and intelligence acting in such a manner towards a peaceable citizen. He therefore imposed the minimum fine of $5 and costs, making $13.75 in all, or one month in jail. Mr. Evans elected to go to jail.

Mr. Barrett then rose and said that he did not bring Mr. Evans to court for the purpose of seeing him sent to jail but to learn the defendant a lesson and to convince him that he should not conduct himself in such an unseemly manner. Mr. Barrett was sorry for the sake of the defendant's family that Mr. Evans was the instigator of an exhibition so disgraceful as the one they were then dealing with. Although the plaintiff considered that the sentence given was an easy one, he told the court that since the defendant had decided to go to jail, he (the plaintiff) for the sake of the defendant's family, would be pleased to have the term to serve in jail reduced from one month to two weeks. Silence reigned for a few moments but it was soon broken by T. Barnsley, who offered to pay Mr. Evans' fine and thereby save him from jail. Thus ended one of the most interesting cases in the history of the Blairmore police barracks.

Editorial Notes

An editorial on Bob Evans and the assault case which is crowded out of this week's issue will appear in our next.

John Herron, M.P., was once a fairly good man but the company which he has been keeping lately has completely spoiled him.

The custom of putting a person on the back on his birthday is an old one, but the party generally given are not of the unpleasant kind Bob Evans attempted to give us last Thursday, August 3rd. However, it was the editor's birthday.

The several Liberal associations throughout this district held enthusiastic meetings on Monday night and quite a number of formerly hide-bound Conservatives deserted John Herron and his party and became supporters of the Liberal party.

The political fight is on and the Liberals are out to win.
John Herron, the present Conservative member for this riding, is at odds with his party over the reciprocity issue and up to the present John has been like a man between the devil and the deep sea—he does not know which way to turn. It is doubtful that Mr. Herron will get the nomination at the Conservative convention to be held at Macleod on Wednesday next.

Anniversary Services of Central Baptist Church

The second anniversary of the opening of Central Baptist church was celebrated this week by special services in the church and by a tea and concert in the opera house.

On Sunday morning, Rev. W. T.
Young, of Frank, occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church and delivered an eloquent sermon.

He took as his text Matt. IV. 19.
The introductory remarks of the second, dealt with the state of the religious world to which Christ came.
It had a great deal of machinery with out the oil of the spirit. How disgusted the Pharisees must have been as the Messiah went to converse with such a character as Peter and count him as a possible "fisher of men." The text suggested the thought "sawed to serve." This was an important part of Christ's teaching. Notice the figure that is used. "Fishes of men," it connected Peter and Andrew's new work with the past of mending their nets, casting them into the sea and hauling them in when full. This commission comes to every church and every church member to serve his fellow men. The fisher must have preparation. How life attempting to fish without first preparing the bait.
Preparation is necessary in every line of life, lack of it and failure in service may be connected as a rule.
The reason why the church has not more influence than it has in this Pass is because its members do not speed sufficient time in developing the spiritual life and are satisfied to live in the suburbs of Christianity.
Experience. The "fisher of men" should not be satisfied with the church service as the only fishing net. He should live such a life as should constantly serve the same purpose. Several rules for the Christian fisher were given, amongst them Mark G.

Pearson's three rules: "1st. Keep your self out of sight. 2nd. Keep yourself out of sight. 3rd. Keep yourself out of sight." Let the Christ be seen. Never count any one too unworthy. Christianity can transform the world. None are "too far gone." Don't let little barriers stop you. When the church of Christ Nest Pass has to give an account of her opportunities among all nationalities, the fact that "they could not speak English," etc., will be a poor excuse.

In the afternoon a pleasant time was spent in the church. L. H.
Putnam occupied the chair. Speeches, solos and recitations occupied the time and were enjoyable, especially so, was the solo, "Praise to the Lord," by Robert Evans. It was the first time that song had been heard. Mr. Evans sang in church and they were highly pleased with his musical voice.

In the evening Rev. J. F. Hunter, pastor of the church, delivered an inspiring sermon, taking as the basis of his remarks, Micah 4, 1-5.

"Here is an accurate forecast. No prophecy more wonderful than this which first uttered these words and Methu, a younger contemporary takes up the message of his teacher and amplifies it also. Two and a half millennia ago these words were uttered and how wonderfully near fulfillment in these gracious days.
Those of us surrounded by conditions of peace should not be indifferent to causes that make warfare to cease."

The temple mount, the place where the only God, Jehovah, is worshiped shall be exalted above all others.
Israel's God will prevail. As men shall gain the right conception of God so they will advance in social service to men. Because men are estranged from God so, we become estranged from men. God will arbitrate between nations rather than thoughts are known. How solemn is it to-day. Over and above the era of ironments and commerce is the dawning era of thoughts and ideas. Free interchange of thoughts bring down arguments and facts.
The blessings of prosperity and society follow in the wake of the knowledge of God. This church, is not builded in vain if through it we know God to have dominion over the hearts of men."

On Monday evening a supper was given in the opera house. Following the supper was a concert in which many of the best talented persons in The Pass took part. H.
E. Lyon occupied the chair. We are sorry that a pressure on our space forbids us from publishing a complete program. However, we would like to say that the solos given by Robert Evans were of a very pleasing nature, and as his voice waited its way to the skies it must have charmed the heavenly choir. At the close of the program Mr. Chester gave a humorous song and amused the audience by telling them some original jokes. He then took up the Blairmore Enterprise from which he gathered some useful information. He wound up by saying "We regret to learn that we are about to lose a very well known family in Blairmore. Howard it will be to part from the scene of so many pleasant memories."

A splendid birth-day cake, made for the church by Mrs. F. M. Pinkney, was distributed among those present. The affair was a large success and much credit is due those ladies who took such an active part in the celebration.

Conservative Meeting.

The Blairmore Conservatives held a meeting on Wednesday evening and elected the following delegates to attend their convention to be held at Macleod on Wednesday next: J. M. Carter, H. E.
Lyon, Rev. J. F. Hunter and D.
Sira.
